(End of Provision)

52.215-9000 Alternate Proposals.

As prescribed by TAM 15.209, insert the following provision:

ALTERNATE PROPOSALS (JANUARY 2001)

An offeror may submit more than one proposal, each of which must satisfy the RFP requirements. As a minimum, one of the proposals submitted must completely respond to the RFP. Alternate proposals may be in an abbreviated form following the same section format, provided that those sections which differ in any way from those contained in the base proposal are precisely described. If alternate proposals are submitted, they should be clearly labeled and identified on the cover page. The reason for each alternate proposal and its comparative benefits shall be explained. Each proposal submitted will be evaluated on its own merits. The evaluation of the alternate proposal on its technical and price merits will be completed simultaneously with the base proposal evaluation. In accordance with FAR 52.215-1(c)(3)(v), the alternate proposal may be withdrawn at any time prior to award by written notice to the contracting officer. The offeror may not submit an alternate proposal at the time of final proposal revision if an alternate proposal was not submitted with the initial proposal.

(End of Provision)

52.219-9000 Submission of Subcontracting Plan.

As prescribed by TAM 19.708, insert the following clause:

SUBMISSION OF SUBCONTRACTING PLAN (JANUARY 2001)

- (a) This provision is not applicable to small business concerns.
- (b) The offeror shall submit a subcontracting plan which meets the requirements of FAR 19.704(a). The subcontracting plan shall be submitted with the offeror's business proposal.
